

Our display at the Glen Cove Public Library

During this festive holiday season we optioned to display both scroll saw work and miniatures.

This one was shown as a work in progress. With this display to the left, we demonstrated the tools needed to do a simple plant in it's own container.

This is one of our more popular pieces.

The Flower Shop: With it's movable parts and a variety of plants and accessories, that can be changed/rearranged for any season, holidays or even Birthdays.

Decorating often is always a treat.

And you just never know when you'll find another "perfect piece" to add to your collection.

This art form dates back centuries. With modern tools like electric scroll saws, routers and lathes, these projects take less time, but still address every minute' detail in any piece.

Also presented is our antique vignette and our one piece mini wall hanging.
